Bobbie and my mother (Dorothy Holmes Zeller) were best friends, and my sisters (Barb and Mary Anne) and I stayed close with Bobbie after my mom's death in 1969. When Bobbie turned ninety, I asked her to what she attributed her longevity, and she said, "Playing cards and drinking beer." Godspeed, Bobbie. I love you and will miss you. Hug Mom and Mary Anne for me, and I'll drink a beer to you.
